FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE LINC GROUP APPOINTS ROSS THOMPSON AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

IRVINE, CA — April 12, 2010 — The Linc Group is pleased to announce N. Ross Thompson III has joined the company as Senior Vice President of Operations. In this new role, he will provide overall direction and guidance to enterprise-wide operational activities, and lead efforts to accomplish established corporate growth goals, both domestically and internationally. Mr. Thompson will report to The Linc Group's Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President Dave Whaley.

Prior to accepting this position, Mr. Thompson served for more than 36 years in the United States Army, retiring as a Lieutenant General. His last assignment was as the Military Deputy, Assistant Secretary of the Army (Acquisition, Logistics and Technology). He held numerous broad-based, multi-discipline command and staff positions throughout his Army career. Mr. Thompson's last command position was as the Commanding General, United States Army Tank-Automotive and Armaments Command in Warren, Michigan, responsible for world-wide logistics, technology and contracting support for Army ground systems.

“Ross will be a tremendous asset to the company. His distinguished military career, extensive command and leadership experience, and a proven track record of success across several disciplines including operations, technology, procurement and financial management will be invaluable in helping guide and grow Linc companies domestically and internationally,” said Mr. Whaley.

“I am honored and excited to join The Linc Group. The values, business model, and customer focus of Linc’s operating companies are unsurpassed in the industry,” said Mr. Thompson. “I look forward to working with the leadership, and entire Linc team, to build upon past successes and position the companies to continue to lead the industry in the future.”

Mr. Thompson was a distinguished military graduate of the College of William and Mary, receiving a degree in biology. He also has an MBA in operations research from George Washington University, as well as an MA in international relations from Salve Regina University. His many military awards and decorations include the Army Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, and Army Commendation Medal to name a few.

“I’m delighted to welcome Ross to the team,” said The Linc Group President and CEO Tracy K. Price. “His operational and organizational expertise makes him the ideal executive to help plan and implement our expansion objectives while maintaining Linc’s industry leadership.”

Mr. Thompson will work out of Linc’s Alexandria, Virginia office.
